

Louisa Pinkham Howe (1915-1998)
Papers, 1951-1999

MS-N023

One manuscript box

Container List

- f.1 Biographical materials, obituaries, 1998-1999
- f.2 Correspondence, 1998
- f.3 Brown v. Board of Education deposition, correspondence, and clippings, 1951-1954, 1970, 1992-1995
- f.4 Addiction and the social order, n.d.
- f.5 The failure of a moral approach to drug abuse, n.d.
- f.6 Methadone and morality: toward a sociology of addiction, n.d.
- f.7 Origins and history of pesos system/psychomotor therapy, n.d.
- f.8 Notes on a Freudian formulation of psychomotor therapy, January 1966
- f.9 An anti-moral approach to group therapy with addicts, 1974
- f.10 Addiction as gambling, [1974 or 1975]
- f.11 What is an addict?: empirical patterns and concepts of addiction, by Johnson, Goldstein, and Duchaine, 1979
- f.12 Prepared statement of Gordon A. Martin Jr. to the Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control, U.S. House of Representatives, September 20, 1985
- f.13 A contemporary psychodynamic approach to drug abuse treatment, by E.J. Khantzian, 1986
- f.14 Dr. Gifford's thank you letter to Kathy Holt, Louisa Howe Holt's daughter, with regard's to donation of Howe's papers to BPSI